I certify that the above information is true and correct, and I am not misleading or providing false information to the Post-Secondary Commission of Forensic Education, Law, and Behavioral Science, a division of the American College of Forensic Examiners. I may be asked to provide additional documentation. I understand that the Commission reserves the right to verify any and all of the information I provide. If I would misrepresent my credentials or refuse to provide documentation at a later time if asked, my membership will be terminated. I agree to hold harmless and indemnify the Commission and its officers, directors, employees, and agents for any misrepresentations of my credentials and for all claims, loss, damage, and judgment expense. I certify that I have not been convicted of a felony. I have not been disciplined for any ethical violation in the past 5 years nor am I under investigation by any legal authority or licensing board. If any of the above is not true, please provide a separate letter of explanation. The Commission does not endorse, guarantee, or warrant the work or opinions of any individual member. Membership does not imply licensing by the organization of a member's qualifications, abilities, or expertise. The objective of the Commission's publications and the activities that it sponsors is for informative and educational purposes. The views expressed by the authors, publishers, or presenters are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the Commission. The Commission does not assume any responsibility or liability for its members or subscriber's efforts to apply or use the information, suggestions, or recommendations made by the organization, publication resources, or activities.
